

ASBESTOS AWARENESS

This level 1 course in Asbestos Awareness is Category A training in accordance with Control of Asbestos Regulations 2012. This course is ideal for anyone who is likely to disturb any material constructed or installed in a building before 1999.

This applies to all Electricians, Joiners, Gas engineers, General maintenance staff, Heating & ventilation engineers, Telecommunications engineers, Fire & Burglar alarm installers, Decorators, Demolition & Construction workers, Roofers, Plumbers, Plasterers, and Shopfitters.

Anyone who is likely to disturb any material in a building should have Asbestos training regularly, CAR 2012 (Control of Asbestos Regulations)

Course Content:

- What is Asbestos?
- The origination of the material
- The health risks associated with ACMs (Asbestos Containing Materials)
- The different types of Asbestos
- The uses of Asbestos
- The properties of Asbestos
- Asbestos registers
- Legislation
- Emergency arrangements

Duration: Approx. 3 Hours

Certification:

At the end of the course each learner is presented with a certificate of completion for their training records. This should be refreshed on a regular basis.

Assessment:

Each learner is assessed for their understanding continually throughout the course.

Maximum group size:

Up to 16 candidates

Cost:

Please contact us for further details